Guadalupe Mission. The theologians taught catechism every weekday during August. Each day began with Mass and morning prayers, followed by Benediction. Mr. James King (Ore.) then led the children in singing hymns. Mssrs. John Hanley, Harkins (Ore.), and King taught the Confirmation group; the intermediates were under the care of Mssrs. Duffy (Chi.) and William Phipps. Twenty children were prepared for their First Holy Communion by Mssrs. T. Taheny and Becker. On Sunday, August 29, Monsignor Maher of St. Patrick's Church gave these children their First Communion in our Guadalupe Chapel.

One of the local dairies gave enough milk every day for all of our 200 children. Mr. Becker's efforts were responsible for awakening this generosity. Fr. Hubbard supplied three movies during the month. On the 30th, the annual picnic was held at Alum Rock Park. Food contributed by generous San Jose merchants was cooked by some of the Mexican ladies.

Teachers for the Fall semester, which begins Sept. 18, are Mssrs. McCauley, Felt, Dempsey, McAnulty, Geiszel, Straukamp, Shirey (Ore.), and Schlatter (Ore.) We expect 200-300 children every Saturday. Mr. Straukamp will start a Sodality at the Mission.

Varia. The new theologians arrived on Sept. 1. There are eleven Californians, ten Oregonians. Mr. Enrique Perez comes to us from Cuba and Mr. Luigi Messineo (2nd year) from Sicily. Schola Brevis was on Sept. 7, preceded by the annual Red Mass and the Profession of Faith. This year, as in 1952, Fr. James O'Connor from West Baden will teach Canon Law. The new Ratio has been put into effect in the schedule of classes and circles.

On Sept. 9, Mr. Rom Maione, the President of the Canadian Young Catholic Workers, talked to the community about the YCW Movement. Mr. Maione trained as an organizer in England and on the Continent.

AZUSA

The Memorial Day week end found the largest opening crowd ever to attend retreats at Manresa, with forty five men present at supper, and Fr. Connolly as Retreat Master. From then on the summer groups, which usually fall down at this season of the year, have been large. Providentially the new hermitages were ready by mid-July, which means that Manresa now can offer forty individual rooms, with the over-flow doubling up in the large rooms of the original mansion.

Manresa seems to be more and more popular for Ours making their annual retreat. Present for this purpose during June and July were: Frs. Rutledge, Howard Donohue, David Daze, Richard Vaughan, Gerald Leahy, Frank Sautotte, Frank Frugoli and Fr. G. Barras of New Orleans Province, now chaplain at nearby El Toro Marine Base.

Visitors during the past months were Rt. Rev. Bishop Cote, S.J. (Canadian) from Hong Kong, long a prisoner of the Reds in China, Fr. Ed. Whelan from Utah who had come down to conduct a retreat for the 3rd Order Carmelites at Alhambra, and Fr. Furlong S. J., Rector of St. Mary's College, Kansas. Very Rev. Fr. Provincial (J. O'Brien), accompanied by Fr. Cassassa of Loyola U., also spent a day with us.

On June 8th Fr. Connolly gave the Commencement address at Flintridge Sacred Heart Academy, and likewise conducted a tridium for the Feast of the Sacred Heart for the Little Sisters of the Poor in Los Angeles.

On June 4th Fr. Vaughan gave the Commencement address at St. Catherine's Academy at Ventura, and on June 27th was preacher at the Solemn High Field Mass at Pomona, where his Eminence Cardinal McIntyre presided over the ceremonies commemorating the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the Pomona Council of the Knights of Columbus. Fr. Vaughan also preaches every Wednesday evening at the Immaculate Conception Church in Los Angeles, this assignment to continue to the end of the Marian Year.

Fr. Nagle has been preaching on the retreat work at neighboring parishes and the results are visible in the large crowds each week end. Fr. Nagle also spoke on the same subject to the YMI at Gardena, as well as to the Lions Club in Venice.

On June 23rd Bros. Angell and Devine returned to Los Gatos. They were the last duo of Novices to be assigned to Manresa this year; these Novices have been very useful and their youth and piety have been an inspiration to all the retreatants.

At long last Manresa now has a Los Angeles office at: 1535 W. 8th St. L. A. 17, where Fr. Sullivan, our contact man, is busy as ever keeping in touch with retreatants, organizing groups, and financing our various projects. His extraordinary success seems a clear manifestation that God is blessing our work.

BELLARMINE

Fr. Hesser returned from the hospital after a 2½ month illness and has again taken up his duties as Father Minister.

Bellarmino had many visitors during the summer months: Frs. N. Bacigalupi, Wondra, and Brusher made their retreats here.

St. Robert's Hall, the new faculty building; the treasurer's office and switchboard moved over August 21; Father President's office and staff on August 28; the community moved in between these two dates. There was a slight handicap of no beds and no hot water at first, but all managed.

Dedication Day of the new building was August 22. Rev. Fr. Provincial (C. O'Sullivan) attended and gave a short address; the Knights of Columbus (fourth degree) formed a color guard. About 400 were present, and more during the open house and refreshments that followed.

The Jesuit open house to see the new faculty building was September 2. There were a good 125 from the various houses of the province.

Alumni Barbecue was on September 12. Activities: morning Mass, noon smorgasbord, raffles, and dinner. 400 were in attendance.

The Dads' club had their first meeting of the year and a barbecue on September 14. 450 were here.

Scholas Brevis was September 8. The school enrollment now stands at 776. 185 of these are resident students; 591 are day students. Breakdown of classes: Freshmen 244, Sophomores 204, Juniors 178, Seniors 150.

During the summer months Bellarmine loaned its two school buses to the Knights of Columbus so that the Mexican laborers of the area could attend evening Mass.

September 17: Mass of the Holy Ghost attended by the student body. Fr. Franklin was the preacher.

BRIGHAM CITY

The Navajo boys and girls have returned to the Indian School from the Reservation in Arizona and New Mexico. They number 2350. The trip is made by chartered Greyhound buses, and 58 buses were required to transport all those little Navajo chiefs and maidens. The classes in religion have been resumed with about 900 in our Catholic classes. Already great numbers are back at the Sacraments each week. Very many during the vacation, owing to the great distance from the mission centers, are unable to get to Mass.

The Santa Maria Mission in Ogden, a Mexican Mission near the railroad station, has been committed to our care by Bishop Hunt. Fr. Kern, who has had many years of experience among the Mexicans, is Administrator, and has already won the affection and loyalty of those good people. That is evidenced by the marked increase in numbers at Sunday Mass and in the reception of the Sacraments. Formerly there was only one Mass said by a Father from St. Joseph's Church in Ogden. Now there are three Masses. Fr. Kern recently staged a Mexican Festival, in which he was all the committees, master of ceremonies, speech-maker in Spanish and English and general fac totum. It was a great success in every way.

Fr. Edward Pettid arrived from the Army, and is teaching in the new St. Joseph High School — a splendid new building on a commanding site.

From Brigham 20 boys and girls are brought to Ogden, 20 miles distant, each day to St. Joseph High School and to the Grammar School. The bus which serves to transport them is the gift of Mr. G. Allan Hancock of Los Angeles.

EL RETIRO

On the Feast of Blessed Peter Faber, first-born of the Exercises, and in the judgment of St. Ignatius, Retreat Master par excellence, an auspicious day surely, on which to assume such a position, Fr. Cornelius J. O'Mara was appointed Superior of El Retiro, continuing as Superior of the Mission Band.

On August 19 Fr. Rooney was appointed Minister and Consultor of the House. Fr. Aquistapace will return to Santa Barbara, the scene of his former fruitful apostolate.

To mark the Marian Year Fr. Aquistapace had planned the erection of "stations" of the fifteen mysteries of the Rosary, after the manner of the outdoor Way of the Cross. He secured the service of a sculptor whose work is favorably commented upon both at the University of Santa Clara and at Bellarmine. Fr. O'Mara will carry out the project as planned by his predecessor. "Rosary Lane" will be a Marian tribute of the retreatants to Our Lady, Queen of the Rosary, Queen of El Retiro.

Fr. Eugene Toner was invited to give several retreats in Eire this summer, and will return towards the end of September.

The Retreat staff has received much needed help in the person of Fr. William Dunne, and the Mission Band, in the persons of Fr. John McIntosh and Fr. Francis Silva.

The first 8-day retreat for laymen this year was given to five men in July by Fr. Maher. A second will be given October 8-17. Attendance is limited to fourteen, and it is hoped that gradually, as the opportunity becomes better known, the full quota will be reached at each retreat.

A priest of the Sacramento diocese has just completed a 30 day retreat under Fr. Maher. His admiration for the Exercises, with which he was but slightly acquainted, if at all, is unbounded.

A number of Ours, and several secular priests, made their retreats with us this summer. Secluded in St. Robert's Hall, all expressed their delight at El Retiro as a place eminently suited for making the Spiritual Exercises in surroundings such as St. Ignatius desired.

The old kitchen in the former Wellman home, in which Brother Joseph Pereira spent the 25 years of his apostolate as a cook for the community and retreatants, has been metamorphosed into an office of general administration.

Retreat Masters have been assigned for the remainder of the calendar year as follows:

Oct. 7-10: Fr. O'Mara; Oct. 8-17: (Eight Days for Laymen) Fr. Wm. Dunne.

Oct. 14-17: Fr. Maher; Oct. 21-27: Fr. O'Mara; Oct. 28-31, Fr. Wm. Dunne.

Nov. 11-14: Italian Federation; Nov. 18-21, Fr. O'Mara; Nov. 26-28: Fr. Maher.

Dec. 2-5: Fr. O'Mara; Dec. 9-12:

Fr. O'Mara.

Fr. Brolan, Mission at Millbrae; Retreat for Students, St. Ignatius High.

Fr. Dondero, Mission at Bakersfield and Placerville; Retreat for Students, St. Ignatius High.

FORMOSA

Taipei A small water tower which is kept full by an electric pump, was erected at Jesuit Fathers' Residence to make sure that water always will be available. Previously, especially during the hottest weather, very frequently little or no water would trickle through the pipes.

May 29 Br. Griffin took his first trip to Hsinchu.

May 20 The first public procession in honor of Our Lady in Taipei was held. Around 2000 Catholics attended, and approximately 10,000 persons lined the streets to watch the procession. The statue of Our Lady (from Beda Tsang Hall) was carried on a jeep and four little Chinese girls dressed as angels sat in each corner. Fr. Patrick Shaules and Fr. Joseph Donohoe were deacon and subdeacon at the Mass which was celebrated after the procession. Three Archbishops were present.

June 4 Fr. Superior (Edward Murphy) met at Keelung the 8 Carmelites arriving to begin their foundation at Hsinchu. While in Taipei the Carmelites stayed at the Benedictine Convent on "Golden Gate" (Chin Men) Street.

On Pentecost eight or nine of our students were confirmed by Most Reverend Joseph Kuo, Archbishop of Taipei.

June 14 Fr. Superior and Fr. Frederic Foley attended a celebration at Green Lake put on by the Catholic students graduating this year.

June 15 The graduates of the Foreign Language Department of the University invited to a banquet all the Fathers who had taught them at the University.

Hsinchu Fr. Murphy was the celebrant at the first Mass said in the Carmelite Convent. The Carmelites were happy with their convent, which had been remodeled for them from a Chinese residence by Br. Stephen Benzce.

On Pentecost eight were baptized at our Lin Sen Road Church.

The first public Mass at our Chung Shan Road residence was celebrated on Trinity Sunday. A large crowd attended. A sermon in Taiwanese was preached by Fr. John Schmotzer of the Hungarian Province.

Plans are now being made for opening two kindergartens in September. One will be run by the Franciscan Missionaries of Mary, and the other will be under the care of the Holy Ghost Sisters.

LOYOLA HIGH SCHOOL

The 1954-55 term began with 880 students, of whom 250 are Freshmen.

Fr. N. Bacigalupi, after teaching at Loyola for 15 years, has now taken up his new assignment in Santa Barbara. He will be an assistant at the parish and teach in the parish high school. Fr. Hancock has taken Fr. Bacigalupi's classes at Loyola.

The new classroom and library building is about half completed, and should be ready for occupancy in late November.

The sudden death of our coach Jack Bouchard was deeply felt by all friends of Loyola. The 1500 people who attended the rosary at the Church of the Visitation, and the hundreds more who assisted at the funeral mass, along with many religious and clergy of the archdiocese, gave eloquent testimony to the deep esteem Jack inspired in all who knew him.

Mr. Bouchard is survived by his wife and four children. Jack Jr. is a freshman at Loyola.

Mr. John McGee, for seven years coach at Marquette University High in Milwaukee, is Loyola's new coach.

Mr. Peinado is Cee basketball coach, Mr. Tattu takes over the Bees, and Mr. McDonough, who is also beadle of the scholastics, has graduated to the Jayvees.

Fr. Frugoli, Student Counselor, is planning to resume the closed retreats at Azusa during the first semester.

LOYOLA UNIVERSITY

Alumni. Alumni activities got off to a fast start this year with a stag barbecue. For many the day began with a golf tournament, picked up speed with baseball and volleyball games, and reached a climax with a brawl over 16-oz. New York cuts. This final fracas engaged the efforts of better than 500 roaring lions. Fr. Robert Graham and crew were quite happy with the turnout . . . easily the largest to attend an alumni gathering.

Registration. The official figures for the semester's enrollment have not been published as yet, however, it appears that the registration for the day school will be a bit lower than last year.

The night school division has added courses this term in adult education. The classes will run for eight weeks and are non-credit.

Institute. A four-day institute on Fundamental Psychiatry was held on campus before the beginning of school. Fr. James McGoldrick of Seattle conducted the institute in cooperation with Msgr. Thomas J. O'Dwyer, di-cesan director of health and hospitals.

Improvements. The Loyola Guild has won the gratitude of both faculty and students. Thanks to them, new furniture has been placed in the Fathers' recreation room, and new drapes and pictures plus some of the old furniture from the faculty building has been placed in the recreation room of Sullivan Hall.

Another major improvement on the campus was the new surface given to the students' parking lot north of the gym.

Miscellaneous. Fr. Rector (Charles S. Casassa) spoke in San Francisco to the local chapter of the American Institute of Banking. His subject was "Private Education and Private Enterprise."

Fr. John O'Farrell has relieved Fr. John Hynes of his courses this semester. This will allow Fr. Hynes a chance to finish his doctoral thesis.

Rev. Eugene M. Bacigalupi S.J.

1880-1954

Rev. Eugene M. Bacigalupi, affectionately known to Religious and students alike, as Father Baci, after being in poor health for several years, and since January confined in the Donohoe Infirmary on the campus, because of a heart attack, died piously in the Lord, at O'Connor Hospital, San Jose, at 11:15 p.m., August 25, 1954, aged 73.

Father Bacigalupi, born November 28, 1880, was a native Santa Clara, and after attending the Parish School and three years of High School at the University, entered the Society at Los Gatos, August 8, 1895.

After spending seven years at Los Gatos, he made his Philosophical studies at Gonzaga University and received his M.A. in 1904. He taught Physics and Mathematics at St. Ignatius' College from 1905 to 1908, and at Gonzaga College from 1908 to 1911. He studied Theology at the Gregorian University, Rome, was ordained priest on July 26, 1914, and received his Ph.D. 1915. He spent his Tertianship at Poughkeepsie, New York, and pronounced his Last Vows at St. Michael's, Spokane, February 2, 1917.

He taught Physics at St. Michael's from 1916 to 1925, and was Head of the Physics Department at the University of Santa Clara for twenty-nine years (1925-1954).

Besides teaching at Santa Clara, Father Bacigalupi served as Chaplain at Agnews State Hospital for twenty-three years, retiring two years ago to devote full time to the Department of Physics.

He was always interested in White Magic, and was a member of several National Magician Organizations. Being of a jovial and happy disposition, he often entertained the inmates at the State Hospital with his tricks. One story often recalled is that of an inmate speaking to Father saying, "We like you so much, Father, even more than Father Raggio, the former Chaplain, because you are so like one of us."

His tireless attention to the inmates, Masses, Confessions, Sick-Calls, etc., was commented on by Father General Ledochowski, in a personal letter of congratulation and appreciation.

Fr. Bacigalupi was a patron of the San Jose Concert Series, and for many years had been identified with the cultural life of Santa Clara Valley. He was a lover of fine music, and his record collection at the University is one of the finest in the area.

Fr. Bacigalupi spent forty-four years in the class-room, and was known for the high quality of work, which he demanded from his students, and for his exactness in grading. Even in his delirium prior to his death he spoke of "getting up, and going to the class-room, as the boys were waiting for him."

Recitation of the Office of the Dead preceded the Requiem Mass in the Mission Church, said by Fr. Hauck, President. Over a hundred Jesuits, many of whom he taught at St. Michael's, attended the funeral service.

Burial was in the Jesuit Plot at the Santa Clara Catholic Cemetery, Santa Clara.
